Class Details:

The student rides one time per week for approximately 30-45 minutes. Most riders start with 3 volunteers, side-walking and leading. They progress at their own speed and according to ability. Some may move on to ride independently. Weight restriction of 200 pounds.
- Horsemanship: Teaches the participant about care of the horse such as grooming and leading. This is an unmounted activity. They attend one time per week for approximately 45 minutes.
- Horseabilities: Uses a mechanical horse to give the participant the benefit of the movement of a horse. Ideal for those that cannot be on a live horse due to medical or physical restrictions. The participant attends 1 time per week for approximately 30 minutes.
- Summer Camps: Incorporate Therapeutic Riding and Horsemanship. Participants attend 4 days from 9-11:30.

Special Equestrians, Inc. will make every effort to provide services to all participants whose application is accepted. We are only able to do so through fund raising events and the generosity of our supporters, sponsors and grantors. Tuition covers just a fraction of the cost of providing services. All applications must be submitted by February 15th and will remain in place for the current year. A newly completed Tuition Discount Application will need to be completed annually by February 15th. Applicants will be notified of the outcome by February 28th of each year.

- All information provided on the application will be kept strictly confidential.
- All applications will be reviewed and funds will be distributed on the basis of need, number of requests and available funds. In addition to family income, additional factors will be considered, such as number of dependents in the household and extraordinary medical expenses or circumstances.
- Participants who receive tuition assistance and have more than 1 “no-show”(no notification given for missing a class) will be subject to forfeiting the current term discount and becoming ineligible for future assistance.
- If there is a change in income during the year, please notify the office in writing at the address below.
